EMERGING GROWTH EQUITIES, LTD.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2007

1. ORGANIZATION

Emerging Growth Equities, Ltd. ("the Company") is a registered broker dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). It is a Pennsylvania limited partnership that is a wholly owned subsidiary of EGE Holdings, Ltd., a Pennsylvania limited partnership. The Company, like other broker dealers, is directly affected by general economic and market conditions, including fluctuations in volume and price level of securities, changes in interest rates and securities brokerage services, all of which have an impact on the Company's liquidity.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue – Securities transactions (and related commission revenue and expense, if applicable) are recorded on a trade date basis.

Fair Value of Securities – Securities owned and sold, but not yet purchased, are valued at market value and the resulting difference between cost and market is included in income.

The market value of securities owned, consisting of equities and debt securities, is determined by the Company utilizing quoted market prices, dealer quotes and prices obtained from independent third parties. Other securities with no ready market are valued at fair value as determined by management.

Substantially all of the Company's financial assets and liabilities are carried at market value or at amounts which, because of the short-term nature of the financial instruments, approximate current fair value.

Investment banking – Investment banking revenues include gains, losses, and fees, net of syndicate expenses, arising from securities offerings in which the Company acts as an underwriter or agent. Investment banking revenues also include fees earned from providing merger-and-acquisition and financial restructure advisory services. Investment banking management fees are recorded on offering date, sales concessions on settlement date, and underwriting fees at the time the underwriting is completed and the income is reasonably determined.

Concentration of Credit Risks – The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. Management believes the Company is not exposed to any significant credit risk related to cash.

Depreciation – Fixed asset purchases are classified as three or seven-year property for depreciation purposes. They are depreciated under accelerated methods.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Use of Estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates and assumptions.

Cash and cash equivalents – The Company includes as cash and cash equivalents amounts invested in money market mutual funds.

Income Taxes – No provision has been made for income taxes since the Company is a partnership and is not taxed at the entity level.

Allocation of income, loss and cash distributions – Allocation of net income, loss and cash distributions are allocated 99.5% to EGE Holdings, Ltd. and .5% to EGE Special Purpose Corporation, the general partner which is owned by EGE Holdings, Ltd.

3. OPERATING LEASES

The Company leases certain equipment under non-cancellable leases that expire in 2008 through 2010. Equipment lease expense for the year ended December 31, 2007 totalled $30,503. Future minimum lease payments under operating leases are as follows:

6. DEPOSIT WITH AND PAYABLE TO CLEARING BROKER

The Company maintains a clearing agreement with National Financial Services, LLC ("NFS") (See Note 8). Under the agreement the Company maintains a clearing deposit of $250,000. NFS will finance the Company's inventory under normal margin terms. The Company pays interest on any amount payable to NFS at the prevailing National Financial Base Lending Rate (NFBLLR), which was 7% at December 31, 2007. The Company also receives interest based on the National Financial Credit (NFC) rate when an average monthly credit balance of $1,000 is maintained. These contracts are valued at market, and unrealized gains and losses are reflected in the financial statements. 11. NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements" ("FAS 157"). FAS 157 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. FAS 157 establishes a fair value hierarchy that distinguishes between (1) market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and (2) the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs). FAS 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and is to be applied prospectively as of the beginning of the fiscal year in which FAS 157 is initially applied. At this time, management is evaluating the implications of FAS 157, and the impact, if any, of this standard on the Company's financial statements has not yet been determined.

12. PROFIT SHARING AND SAVINGS PLAN

The Company has a Profit Sharing and Savings Plan (the "Plan") which provides for discretionary Company contributions and/or a salary deferral at the option of the employees. The Plan has an optional Company matching clause, and covers substantially all employees of the Company who meet certain age and length of employment requirements.

Under the salary deferral component of the Plan, eligible employees may contribute any whole percentage of their compensation varying from 1% to 15%, up to the maximum permitted under the Internal Revenue Code, and the Company may make discretionary matching contributions. The Company made no contribution to the Plan for the year ended December 31, 2007.

To the Partners of
Emerging Growth Equities, Ltd.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Emerging Growth Equities, Ltd. (the Company) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2007 in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

- 1) Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13.
- 2) Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2007, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Partners, management, the SEC, the FINRA, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
